Beckingham Bugle

February 2016

I'm trying a few new things this edition. I've added websites for event information. Often data is too late for the Bugle and the sites have lots of general useful information too. I've also added a 'For Sale' section this time. Is that something people would find useful?

With Easter approaching there are a number of Church services but not very many other dates for the diary. Vic and Valerie's coffee morning is usually enjoyable so don't miss that if you can make it.
